

Packing Specialist

at The Kerby's Houseplant Shop

The Kerby's Houseplant Shop delivers gorgeous houseplants across the lower 48 states. A critical part of getting plants shipped safely is making sure that they are packaged with care.

This job opening is for someone who wants to work with cool houseplants and make them a part of people's homes all across the country. Job responsibilities include preparing, inspecting, and packaging plants for shipping.

Qualities We Look For:

- You consistently go above and beyond what is expected of you
- You have exceptional attention to detail. Each package that is in your care gets the same attention and you commit to maintaining The Kerby's Houseplant Shop's high standards for plant and package quality.
- You're friendly and personable - you enjoy meeting new people, in person and online and always strive to deliver great customer service
- You're in good shape and energetic - not afraid of hard physical work and a challenge
- You're dependable and hardworking - you want to be part of a great culture of like-minded, fun people
- You're a good communicator, problem-solver, and very organized

Position: Part-Time – Sundays, Mondays, Tuesdays and/or Wednesdays.

Pay: $12 to $14 per hour

General Requirements: You have a great attitude and are reliable and hardworking. You are 18+ years of age and have the physical stamina to lift/carry 25 pounds repeatedly. You have exceptional attention to detail and love to delight people.

Experience: Packing or shipping experience is a plus.
